

Cheryl G. Boamah

January 3, 1950 - March 25, 2026

Cheryl Gray Boamah, a devoted servant of God and loving matriarch, was called home late in the morning of March 25, 2026. Born January 3, 1950, in Belhaven, NC, to the late Evelyn & Turner White, Sr.; she was preceded in death by her sister Lendia Richardson, and her husband Solomon N. Boamah. Cheryl lived a life dedicated to her faith.

Cheryl graduated from Crestwood High School in 1968, and attended Norfolk State University where she graduated with her bachelor's in History. With that, she later went to New York and started her career at Securities Industry Automation Corporation (A.K.A. SIAC) where she dedicated 30 years of hard work as a Stock Analyst for the New York Stock Exchange. After she retired Cheryl moved to Plant City, Florida where she was a substitute teacher for 10 years.

She was an active member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Plant City, serving in various ministries, including Media, Wellness, Missions, Hospitality, Prayer, and Choir. Cheryl also shared her wisdom as a Sunday School teacher, inspiring countless lives.

Cheryl had a wonderful sense of humor and loved being surrounded by laughter and good jokes. Her faith was rooted in God's promises, including Psalm 91:11, 'For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.'

She is survived by her son, Benjamin; step-sons Eric (Esther) & Ernest, whom she loved as her own; two brothers, Turner White, Jr. (Karen), and Rev. Dr. Rickey White (Natalie); and two sisters, Gay White and Cassandra Smith (Vincent, Sr.). A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends. Her loving nieces, Erica Richardson, Sean Brown-Byfield, and Renee Brown-Walters (Gary), whom she guided and loved dearly; and her ride-or-die friend, Beryl Pope, who stood by Cheryl's side for 47 years through thick and thin; also, a dear, precious 93 years old aunt, Ella J. Brown. Cheryl's legacy of love, kindness, and joy will live on through each of us.
