“ *Dearest Forbes and Hudson family, I was great saddened to learn of Christine's passing. I hold many fond memories of you all from Dupuy Road and Sharon Baptist. To me she was an example of Black Girl Magic. Beautiful, smart, quietly independent and determined. I know she will be greatly missed but take comfort in knowing that you will see her again and God will strengthen and keep you in His loving care. Sending my deepest sympathies, prayers and love. “ When I got the news of Christine’s passing , it hit me like a Ton of Bricks because I didn’t even know she was sick . Just a sweet and caring friend she was . She and Marvin helped me put my Hot Dog Trailer on the road . Always reaching out to help. Praying for the Entire Family that God will give You All the Strength to Walk Down This Journey. Sleep on Chris and Take your Rest . Going to Miss You .

“ Condolences to the family. I met Christine when she started her first Civil Service job as a Personnel Specialist at Norfolk Naval Shipyard Human Resource Office. She lived down the street with Mrs. Britt and we carpooled together. Such a sweet and quiet person. I have not seen her in years but our friendship was forever. Beautiful personality.

“ To Marvin and the Forbes family,

I was sad to here of the passing of Christine. She was a sweet, loving and caring person. She was one of my best friends and no matter how much time passed between us talking, when we spoke it was picking up from where we left off.

I am glad I had the chance to share space and time with her and call her my friend. She will be missed but never forgotten.

“ Christine and I met at Sharon Baptist Church in Dinwiddie, Virginia as children. She and her whole family were fellow acquaintances as we navigated life as kids, DJ hung in the junior choir, Christmas plays as angels or what parts we played. Childhood with the Forbes Family brings back so many wonderful memories. We became reacquainted over years ago in Hampton Roads and Christine will be truly missed and her memories will last forever.

“ When I received the message Christine had passed away I was in shock. From the first time I met Christine (when I moved in across the street) Christine has always treated my son Justin and I like family. When ever I came over to chit chat or ask for advice about something the same question was always asked if I was hungry. I can remember on Sunday afternoons watching football and playing card games at the kitchen table. Christine wouldn't say to much she would would just show us that she won the game. Christine will be missed. Rest In Peace sweet lady we have it from here.

“ To the family you have our deepest condolences. We really loved meeting you though the love we share with our adopted brother Virgil. We remember the lovely cook out we cane to at your home. We had so much fun and we will always remember the love and the affection you all showed to us. Christina will be missed and we I know she was so loved by so many.
Be blessed and we will keep you all in prayer as you lay her to rest in her heavenly home.
Love to you all,
