“ Memories! Every time I saw Mrs. Bass she would always ask me “When are you gonna get a husband” I would say “when you get one! She said I’m working on it !! She always had something funny to say! I always left her with laughter! She was a fighter, a survivor!! Kevin, Mike, Keith, you had your Mom a long time! Know that she is at peace! Rest easy! Much love! Gladys “luci” Ebron

“ There are so many beautiful and funny memories over the years, but remembering her laughter will always be my best! My Aunt Clara always told it like it was, and added a dose of love to help it go down. She was my ❤️! She and my Mom were not to be messed with, cause they had a village who had their backs. Not that they needed it though! May God give comfort and peace to those left behind. 🙏
