

Clarence E. Morris

November 19, 1923 - April 23, 2018

On Monday, April 23, 2018 at 11 :20 am, Clarence Edward "Uncle Buddy" Morris decided to lay his life down after getting a glimpse of Heaven. He fought a good fight, finished his course and kept the faith.

"Buddy or Lit Buddy" as he was affectionately called was born on November 19, 1923 in Norfolk County to the late Fleming and Leney Morris. Buddy was educated in the Norfolk County School System. He worked at DD Jones as a mechanic.

At an early age, he accepted Christ and joined New Light Baptist Church. He served many years as an usher.

Buddy will be remembered for his quiet, humble persona. During his lifetime he was a father figure and mentor to many children. On any Sunday you would find him watching his favorite team, the Philadelphia Eagles. He was an avid fan.

He was preceded in death by his wives, Carrie Morris and Marjorie O. Morris; daughter Betty Etheridge Smith; stepson Theodore Creekmur; four brothers: Richard (Buster) Morris, Steven Morris, James (Jimmy) Morris and Pearlle (PooPoo) Morris; two sisters: Ida (Lue) Morris and Florentine Goodman.

He leaves to rejoice in his memory; one stepson, James (Jackie) Creekmur of Chesapeake, VA, two sisters, Gladys Rountree of Chesapeake, VA and Alberta Banks of Portsmouth, VA, three grandchildren; Shanika Alexander, Veronica Myrick and Brian Lazer Valenter, two special nieces; Marie S. Bryant and Amanda Evette Jennings, his caregiver during his final days, niece

Michelle Pullum, a special Godchild Diona Kelly, next door neighbor, many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

He was loved very much and will be sorely missed.
