

Clarence Edward Whitehurst, Jr.

February 25, 1972 - May 19, 2024

Clarence Edward "EJ" Whitehurst Jr., 52, of Chesapeake, VA passed away suddenly May 19, 2024. EJ is survived by his wife, Denise Whitehurst; mother, Linda "Sissy" Whitehurst; two stepsons, David Ray Poul and George Allen Poul (Ashley); Grandchildren, Gabriella, George, Penelope, Bailey, and Addison; as well as numerous cousins that were more like siblings. He was preceded in death by his father, Clarence Edward "Eddie" Whitehurst, Sr.; paternal grandparents, Hubert C. Whitehurst, Sr. and Jewel L. Whitehurst; maternal grandparents, Jack Wills and Bernice Avery and his beloved dog, Duke.

EJ grew up in Providence Forge on Greenyard Farm before establishing his life in Chesapeake. Greenyard is where he found his love for big rigs while helping his uncle's Sammy and John work on them. Later in life, EJ carried on the family tradition of Whitehurst Hauling with a rig of his own which he worked on with his cousin Sam. There wasn't anything the two of them couldn't fix.

If anyone knew EJ, or as Denise would say "Big Country", you knew the love he had for his wife Denise and their dogs (Leroy and Lulu). In his downtime you would find EJ and Denise on their Harley for a joyride, at home with his pups or visiting family back home in Providence Forge. EJ was a big guy with a huge heart. He loved his family more than anything in this world. Most called him a big teddy bear. He would light up any room with his big smile and bright blue eyes.
