

Clayton Arthur Thomas

March 10, 1974 - December 27, 2015

On Sunday, December 27, 2015, our precious son, brother, father, grandfather, uncle, cousin and friend, Clayton Arthur Thomas was called home to his eternal rest.

Clayton was born on March 10, 1974 to the late Arthur L. Thomas and Helen Murphy. He grew up in Lake Village and later moved to Camelot of Chesapeake, VA.

He attended Deep Creek High School, Chesapeake, VA.

Clayton was a skilled carpenter and worked for his father. He enjoyed playing basketball and was a huge fan of the Dallas Cowboys. His personality lifted the spirit of everyone he came in contact with. His smile could light up a room and melt your heart. He was the one person you could count on in a time of need.

Clayton enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, but most of all they loved and enjoyed spending time with him.

Clayton leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Helen Murphy; sisters, Sherith Murphy and Monika Thomas; brother, Patrick Thomas; daughter, Atiyah Teal; Grandson, Bryce Teal; niece, Monika Thomas; grandmother, Audrey Murphy and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Met him for the first time thru family on Christmas eve. He was at my uncle house all night. Sad. He was a very calm like man. I was shocked to hear how fast he has gone from this world. May God bless the family

“ Its hard for me to write this but I have to. Clayton was a good friend to me and my son. I fell upon hard times and Clayton extended his arm to help me and my son when I had nobody else to turn to. That was something that I never expected. It breaks my heart that he is gone. I will never forget you R.I.H. Clayton 🙏🙏🙏🙏
