

Clifford James Franke

May 26, 1944 - November 11, 2012

Clifford James Franke, affectionately known as “CJ” departed this life on Sunday, November 11, 2012 at Consulate Health Care in Norfolk. He was a retired K-9 Officer with over 20 years of service with the City of Portsmouth. During his service he received one of the first Medal of Honor for a hostage negotiation. He was a diehard Redskins fan who looked forward to watching each and every game. CJ leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Carolyn Y. Franke; a daughter, Shelley Franke and two sons, Clifford R. Franke (Lisa Cilfone) and Jonathan R. Franke (Casey). Also left to cherish his memory is a brother, John Franke and six grandchildren, Kristen, Dalton, Kaleb, Brandon, Luis, and Ryder and one great grandson, Reid.

I have known & enjoyed working with 'CJ' ever since he joined the Portsmouth Police Department.I always got tickled at him when he would whistle like a bird.I Nick Named him " Birdman "
He was truely a very professional officer with a funny sense of humor.
May the Lord Bless & Comfort His Wife Carolyn , his brother & his three children & their entire family and give them peace .

*With My Deepest Sympathy,
