“Dad I have so many fond memories, of you. I met you and Ma, when Ty introduced us. Shortly thereafter, I moved from the ship, in Norfolk, to live with you all in Chesapeake. You were Always a Dad, and father figure in my life. Thankful for you having me, as a Bonus daughter, as I loss my Father, when I was a teen. You would come into the hallway every morning, and call my name making sure I was awake, for work. You made sure my car was warm, before I drove to NAS Norfolk. I remember the first time, I wanted to fast. You gave me a book to read about fasting, before I fasted. We would sometimes be on a fast, at the same time. Whether, I was working daily on the ship or on deployment, it was comforting to know, I was coming home to you and Ma's, beautiful home. A home always filled with unconditional love, peace, happiness, antiques, and great music, Dad you had the greatest collection of music. I always enjoyed listening, to music, in the den. The Best meals at the kitchen table, formal dining table, cookouts on the patio, smiles, laughs, and great conversations were shared with the entire family. I remember when you and Ma went to Atlantic City. My friend Sharon, and I drove up to meet you. We did a turn around trip, back to the ship. When I moved back to Texas, I called to tell you all, I was sick. You were still there for me, with Ma, by your side. You always shared so much knowledge, about the military, and the world. It's been a Blessing in my life. We talked about your time in Burma, before I moved to Myanmar (Burma) last year. I asked you, for your thoughts about the country. I could always count on your honesty. We had several conversations, when I lived, in Myanmar. Once, I return to Chesapeake, things will be vastly different, without you. I'm so Blessed, Grateful, and Thankful for you being in my life. I will hold over 30 years of lovely, sweet, cherished memories, in my heart. Dad, Happy Birthday in Paradise. Your Memories Live On Forever In Our Hearts
