

Collis Pierre Dean

July 16, 1965 - August 12, 2018

Peacefully and early Sunday morning, Collis Pierre “Beety” Dean entered the arms of his Savior. Greeted by his grandparents and father, he entered into his eternal rest.

Collis was born in Portsmouth, to Benjamin and Delores Dean on July 16, 1965. He grew up as a member of Zion Baptist Church, went to James Hurst Elementary in Portsmouth and College Park Elementary, Brandon Jr. High, and Green Run High Schools in Virginia Beach. He studied Computer Science at ECPI in Norfolk, was an honor roll student at Virginia State University studying Public Administration and attended Ohlone College, Fremont, CA. He worked as a former Fleet Clerk for American Airlines; a salesman for Beach Chemical and later was self-employed with his own C.D.’s Lawn Services.

He was a beach enthusiast, an avid surfer, loved baseball (New York Mets) and played it well. He loved playing Cowboys and Indians so much, this led him to love the Dallas Cowboys Football team to the dismay of the rest of his family. The arguments due to the rivalry will be missed. He was a member of the famous Green Run High School Drum Corps, He played and traveled with American Airlines baseball and basketball teams and played on the Zion Baptist Church Men’s Basketball team for a number of years.

Collis is preceded in death by his father, Benjamin Dean, grand-parents, Bennie Dean and Nora Cheeks, and Zion's own Samuel and Jasmer Pierce.

He is survived by his lovely daughter, Javoni Cary (San Diego, CA); his loving mother, Delores Pierce Dean (Va. Beach); his caring sister, Benita Dean Hopkins (Fremont, CA); a niece, Imam Tahira, two nephews, Jonathan David and Joshua Michael Hopkins (also of CA); two uncles Leon Pierce (Maxine) of Columbia, Md. and Dwight Pierce of Lubbock, Texas; a host of cousins and extended relatives, and friends.
