

Connie Clark

July 28, 1961 - December 23, 2013

One Monday December 23, 2013, God peacefully took Connie Marie Clark home to be with him.

She was the Daughter of the late John Mitchel and Hilda Clark, both from Portsmouth, VA.

Connie finished her schooling at Woodrow Wilson High School from there, she went right to work in the field of retail sales. Connie started her career at the Roses store in the Midcity shopping center. She moved rapidly in the field to Walmart and then finally to Maxway where after working at various locations she advanced to the management team. After receiving a romance novel from her grandmother as a gift Connie became a devoted reader, collecting more than 150 novels. Because she loved writing as much as reading, it was her plan to one day write an autobiography. She leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter, LaVasha Perez, three grandchildren, Lynee Clark, Raymoundo Perez, and Rianna Perez, two brothers, Clarence Clark (Ruby), and Cecil Clark, three sisters, Barbara Clark, Ethel Clark, and Arlene Riddick (Larry), one aunt, Margaret McNeil and a host of nieces, nephews, family members, and friends.

Lavosha, you and your family are in our prayers. I remember a couple of years ago, we were all together in fellowship of the holidays so remember her smile and your heart will heal with time. Be blessed in those memories.
