Craig would always have us laughing and joking on us when we got in trouble, those were the good old days.

“ Craig, the memories we have of you are a treasure that we will hold on to forever. Our hearts ache, but we are comforted by your warm smile and comical outburst that sent us into fits of laughter. We are not blood, but you are my family, and I will truly miss your gift of making everybody crack up, while holding a straight face. Love you more! 💕 Gale

“ My baby brother Craig. From the moment God gave you to us, I took one look at you and fell in love. That was when I claimed you as mine. I see your face, your dimpled grin, but mostly I still hear your laughter after one of your many funny stories. With all of my heart your sister, "Yellow girl" loves and misses you so. Mullie

“ My one only true love baby it's hard for me to accept this. You told me we will grow old together in the lazy boy chairs will the dogs. I miss the smile when we greet each other in the morning. Craig, the crazy thing I remember was when I travel at 12am in the night to get to you and you were so happy to see me. Craig, that 587 mile trip was worth every drive because that's the kind of Love I had for you and you knew it. Craig, I know it going to be difficult for me now but the one true thing I can hold on too right now is the powerful Love I still carry in my soul, for you. I love you so much, that knowing you have left me doesn't feel real. I ask the Lord to help me to heal by Faith this pain. I know God needed a strong Warrior and he choice you for another journey with him. I know in the spirit that you are shining brighter now than ever watching over all of us. I love you my one only true love of 21 years. Love Shelia ❤️
