“ Curtis was a loving and devoted son who took care of his mother, Mrs. Ruth Jones. Ruth and I were such good friends that people thought we were sisters rather than sister-in-laws.

Curtis made sure his mother never missed dining at my table for Thanksgiving and Christmas. When Ruth passed, Curtis continued the tradition of dining with me, his old auntie, for both holidays.

It was so nice watching Curtis open his own business and become an entrepreneur.

I will miss my nephew.

“ When I visited Virginia to meet my future wife’s family, Curtis and his family welcomed we with open arms. Curtis and I would sit and enjoy listening to jazz and discussing the events happening in the Hampton Roads area. I was glad to know him and happy he agreed to be in my wedding.

“ Mr Jones was a very kind and honest man. I met him when hunting for someone to put down carpet in my home and found out he knew a lot of my family from Mt Hermon. Praying for comfort and peace for all his family and friends.
