“ To the family and friends, it saddens me to hear about the passing of Curtis. We met some 6 to 8 years ago while he was temporarily assigned to my work area at NNSY. We shared the same last name so I inquired about a family connection. I will always remember those bright eyes and warm smile. I so remember him saying how much he desired to make things happen and better for his life and family. My sincere sympathy. Spence M. Ward

“ You'll Never Know
You'll never know when it will be the last time
That you smile, laugh or walk
So as you go about your day
Take the time to talk

Say all the things that you have in your heart
And never count on tomorrow For each and every day that we have
Is One that we have borrowed

Live everyday as if it were your last Because one day it just might be
For when our heavenly number is dialed
There is no.....I'm busy

Curtis Ward was a kind, compassionate Man with a big heart and an even bigger smile. He loved his family and he helped people whenever he could. I was blessed to call him co-worker but I was more blessed to call him friend. It's hard when you see someone on Wednesday and all seems well only to find out on Thursday that they are gone. Curtis will be greatly missed. I miss him already. May God's grace and mercy, comfort his family. Teresa
