“ Mama, I would rather write you a letter rather than to text you. Writing letters to me is much faster and personal. Besides, its "old school".... I remember when Joyce and I would walk over "The ImFamous Cat Walk a.k.a., The Ramp to see you and daddy along with all of our uncles and aunts . Johnny, Phillip, Cynt, Willie, William, Frances, Margaret, Hellen, Jake and James were away in school sort of... Slim was away in the military and my mom was away planning a new life and a new home for Joyce and I. I hated leaving Va, but you said that we could always come back to visit.... Coming to your house was magical and special. I thought that you and daddy were rich. There was always plenty to eat. You made the best cream of wheat and baloney sandwiches. Why did you beat me and not Johnny when we went over "Booty Cracks House"? He was older. All I did was follow him.😞 You treated Joyce and me like # 13 and #14. Even though we were your grand kids we felt like we were your children too. 2708 Magnolia Street was so special to me. When I grew up and returned to Va and attended Norfolk State, I felt very blessed and special because once again I was only minutes away from you. Kyle kept me posted on how you were doing. You know that she was nosey. No disrespect to her, but I was always well informed. You had some great neighbors. The ones who looked out for everyone, but would tell on your a** at the drop of a dime.... Also, do you remember the home made hooch (pear) being my favorite. We would laugh not realizing that we were kinda drunk😁. You were wise hiding the hooch in a washed out empty bottle of bleach. Genius! Because William or Phillip would try and drink everything up. They were the good old days.... I will miss you and 2708 Magnolia Street, Portsmouth Va 23704. Tell everyone in heaven hey, especially Bessie Mae, and my other grand parents Pearl and Eddie Robert's. Love always Ricky.

“ She had a long life and a tough one. She endured a lot, so I'm glad she's at rest. It is well deserved. I will see glimpses of her in my family. I will miss is her physical presence. Glad I was able to spend time with and speak to her before she left. I will always remember her laugh, wringing the washcloth with one hand, her sharp tongue and the one and only whuppin she gave me and Shell for running in her house. I wish her a safe journey.

“ Dear Grandma, I haven't been blessed to see you often because of the distance between the States and Germany. But everytime I came over, you had a smile for me. When I introduced Sarah to you you smiled, cause you knew that I am happy. The day before your 98th birthday I told you, that Sarah is pregnant you laughed, this was one of my happiest moments and I wished that our little girl Malia had the chance to meet you.

I am glad, that I was blessed to have you in my life and I will never forget you. I love you and hope you and Grandpa are reunited and happy.

Rest in power Grandma

Sarah, Malia and I will be looking up to heaven tomorrow and say goodbye to an angel

“ My sincere condolences to the faulk family...Mrs. Daisy was a gem to care for. She was so humble, respect, and funny. She would ask me some mornings, "WHY YOU KEEP COMING TO MY HOUSE BOTHERING ME AND WAKING ME UP" I would just laugh and say cause I love you and it's time to start your day. Even though I would let her rest a little longer, she would say am ready now. What a pleasure to get to know Queen Daisy Faulk. Will never forget our time together. Rest in paradise my love always, LISA STONE 🙏💕

“ Ms. Daisy, I remember you best as my neighbor that shared my birthday. I always smile when I think of us celebrating our National Holiday together, though I'm in Kansas and you were in Portsmouth. You always amazed me to be such a beautiful woman raising your 12 children, I know I couldn't have done it. You worked as a nurse, took good care of Mr. Faulk, and took care of all those children, from Slim (or was Cat the oldest) to Cynthia. Like I said, an amazing woman. I'm going to miss our birthday celebrations together, even though we were apart. Rest, my dear neighbor, in peace, in the arms of Jesus. I hope to see you and my mom again. Blessings to all of the Faulk family members. I pray I will see you all again on this side of heaven. I love you, my neighbors forever.

“ Hey grandma they say that God only calls the best home but I sure wish he could have left you with us a lil bit longer. You were truly blessed with 98 beautiful years of life. I am glad we were all able to help you celebrate your 98th birthday. You were full of smiles. I remember you had your plate and I sat beside you and you said Lil Cynt don't look at my pigfeet get your own and we laughed. Your smiled brightened a room. Your work on earth was done and I KNOW GOD GREETED YOU AND SAID WELL DONE MY GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT. SO I KNOW I WILL SEE YOU AGAIN. LOVE AND MISS YOU. YOUR LIL CYNT

“ Miss Daisy as I always called you I miss you already I can't look out my bedroom window and see who is there with you any given night anymore. I would always call my buddy Willie if the lights went out on a cold night before anyone was staying all night so he could come and get in that house with you to make sure you were warm. Now that you are in the arms of Jesus we don't have to concern ourselves with that anymore. You did a great job here on earth as a wife, mother and just a good person in the sight of God. I cherish the times we would talk about your childhood and your growing up years in the Gilmerton section of Chesapeake and how you and the love of your life came to be. You gave me some reference as to how to spot a husband you were always willing to share. I thank you Miss Daisy for sharing life lessons with me and thank God for allowing it.
Missing you from now on.

“ Mama, my heart is so very heavy right now. I want you to know that I was blessed to have you for my grandmother. You were stern but it was all out of love. Being the Matriarch of our family was a title you deserved. Thank you for the things you taught me as a little girl. I wasn't ready for you to leave but I know you were tired and ready to go to your Heavenly home. Being selfish I wanted you to stay but I know God had prepared a place for you and He needed you more. I'm so glad I got the chance to talk to you and tell you that I loved you. Life will be different as we knew it without you but after 98 years you've gained your wings. Fly high and Rest In Peace Mama. I'll love you always and forever.

I pray that I will have at least half of the strength and wisdom that you possessed. You took care of all of your 12 children with ease because you loved taking care of your family. You did without so that we could have the best. God did give us the best when he chose you to be our mom. I love you and will always cherish the beautiful memories of you. So, until we meet again*
