“What Can I Say About Sister Smith, My Friend, Daisy; A God-Fearing Woman, Who Loves God With All Her Heart. Faithful To God, Always. Also, Faithfully Loving Her Husband Minister Smith. I Remember When Men Would Acknowledge Daisy Beauty, And Unforgettable Smile; She Always Wore. Daisy Let Them Know Right Away That, She Was Happily Married; Not Just Married, But Happily Married. How Many Women When Guys Hit On Them Use, The I Am Married Line, Yet, Fail To Mention, “Happily Married”. Now That's A Woman Faithful To God And Faithful To Her Husband; Not Allowing Space For Error In Their Thinking. That Even Though She's Married, If I Continue To Flirt, I Just Might Get What I Want.

Being A Faithful Loving Mother To Her Daughter Tonya, Training Her Up To Love God Was An Added Special Joy. On The Natural Side, She Did Not Neglect Making Sure That Tanya Was Getting The Best Education Possible, So That She Had All The Proper Tools To Help Her Life Be Prosperous As Possible. Daisy Loves Her Family Friends And Her Spiritual Family. I Remember Sister Smith, Daisy, As A Very Giving Woman. Whatever She Could Do To Help If You Let Her She Did.

There's Another Memory I Would Like To Mention. We Sang In The Church Choir, And I Am Known To Sing Off Key, Or, Shall I Say Jump From Key To Key. Daisy Would Say To Me, Shirley; Stand By Me So We Both Can Sing Soprano Together And Stay On Key. Well, It Worked, But Only As Long As I Remembered The Words To The Song. So, Then She Told Me Not To Sing When I Knew I Didn't Remember The Words To The Song, Just Act Like I Did. Acting Like You're Singing Today, It's Called Lip Sync.

I Like To Stop Here At Saying Daisy Smith's Life Is Worth Celebrating, Because; It Shouts Saved, Baptized, Holy Ghost Filled, God Fearing Woman Of God; Who Fought A Good Fight Here On Earth, Now Gone To Be With Our Lord And Savior Jesus Christ.

I Love Daisy And I Miss Her Presence.

My Prayers And Love To ALL Who Loves Sis. Smith, Daisy, My Friend And Sister In Christ...
