Throughout his life journey, the friendships and connections he made lasted a lifetime.

DaJuan had many talents, he enjoyed writing music and drawing. He was known for his quiet and laid-back demeanor earning the nickname "Silence". DaJuan was a diehard New England Patriots fan. He was rarely seen without some sort of Patriot's gear and frequently attended games.

Those left behind to cherish his memories are, his devoted and loving wife Cynthia Dixon. His only son Anthony, whom was his pride and joy and their dog Bubble. DaJuan and his family were lovingly referred to as the A-B-C-D family. His mother Debra Frieson (Herb). Stepfather and Mother in law Andrew and Lorraine Bassett. Father in law Steve Fletcher. A host of sister in laws Dana, Anita, Demetrias, Inise, Samone, Tamesha. A maternal aunt and uncle, Donna Barnes and Anthony Yarborough. Along with a multitude of cherished cousins and friends.

“ Da Juan was an excellent student and a great person. He always had a kind word and a pleasing personality. He always had a kind word and was one who followed directions well.

I remember his graduating from high school having never missed a day during his twelve years. It was my pleasure being his English teacher.

God bless the family and the family has my deepest sympathy and prayers.
