

Danilo Acurantes Palomata Sr.

April 7, 1937 - February 6, 2019

Danilo Acurantes Palomata was born in Nabas, Aklan in the Phillipines on April 7th, 1937. As a young man, he joined the US Navy and retired as a Chief. He went on to have a second career as an expediter and retired with the Norfolk Naval Supply in 2000. Danilo passed away peacefully at home on February 6th, 2019 at the age of 81. In his last days, he was surrounded by his loving family. He is survived by his wife Felisa, a sister Cecilia Gonzalez (Roberto) brother Edmundo Palomata (Victoria), sister Marietta Bentulan (Teodulo), sister Josefa Bautista, son Danilo C. Palomata, Jr. (Carolyn), son Anthony N. Palomata (Tere), daughter Cielito L. Vaughan (Keith) four grandchildren and many nieces and nephews and loved ones. He is preceded in death by his brother Monroe Palomata, Sr and two other brothers that died very young. He will be missed dearly by those that he leaves behind and is now celebrating with those that have been awaiting his arrival.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in his name to St. Paul's Catholic Church.

“ Yesterday, I was just thinking about the Palomata Family so I looked up Uncle Danny's name and sadly I saw he had past. I remember so we'll how nice and kind Mr. Palomata was when I was a young boy. hi wish I had kept in touch with him through the years. Life is presious. Mr. Palomata earn his wings!

Love Always,

“ *To the Palomata clan, please accept our deepest sympathies. I'll always remember Uncle Nilo's kindness & hospitality, even though I've only met him a few times in my life. My mama though is very close to him and remembers happy times when they grew up together in Nabas. She also cherishes the time she spent with Uncle & Auntie Fely the first time she visited the East Coast & they picked her up from Atlantic City & brought her to Va. May Uncle forever rest in peace.
