“ I'm thankful I was able to know a little of him but learned a lot from him, laughed with him, dialogued with him and of course debated with this giant of a man in the person of Danny Barnes. He has already been missed and will continue to be a bright spot here at PRHA. Prayers of peace and comfort to his wife, children and grandchildren, for he displayed great love for his family.

“ Thank you Danny for encouraging me to enjoy life to the fullest, simply because "we only get one." Thank you for challenging me to take time off from work, always saying "it'll be there when you get back". But most of all, thank you for just being you. Heaven has truly gained an angel. We will miss your wit and will always remember and uphold this phrase you would say when leaving our office...."If you can't be good, be better." Praying for your family that God will give them everything they need to endure this difficult time.
