

Darleen Marshall

October 2, 1964 - April 30, 2017

Darleen Marshall was born October 2, 1964 to Deleware (deceased) and Dorothy Marshall in New York, NY. She attended Charles Evans Hughes High School in New York and discovered her love for the sport of basketball. After high school, she attended Norfolk State University in Norfolk, VA and shortly after she had her daughter, DaVeeta Marshall.

Darleen worked at Northrop Grumman Shipyard for many years where she received numerous recognitions and certifications for her job performance.

Darleen was known by many as "D" and if you ever came in contact with her, you were in for a very good laugh. She loved her home state of New York and enjoyed watching basketball and the New York Giants. She had an awesome sense of humor and loved to make people laugh. No matter what she was doing or going through, she always managed to keep other people in good spirits with her comedy. Her mother Dorothy always said "she missed her true calling; she should've been a comedian". She always called her mother hew "shadow boxer" because she was never too far behind.

Darleen is survived by her mother, Dorothy Marshall (NY); daughter, DaVeeta Marshall (VA); brother, Del Marshall (NY); two great nieces, one great nephew and a host of aunts, uncles and many loving friends.

“ Cousin you will be missed by many, It breaks my heart to know you are gone but I will be comforted in knowing that you are in a better place reuniting with your dad, my Uncle Delaware, your aunt Willie Mae and Great Grandma Bertha to name a few. Thank You for being a strong daughter, sister, mother, niece and cousin. You will always be in our hearts!

Orlando "Cepeda" Braxton - May 09, 2017 at 12:00 PM

“ I will miss your lovely smile and all the fun times we had at work. I always remember that special sparkle in your eyes when you talked about your daughter, your mom, and your father. You always had a caring heart with a straight forward twist. I will miss you dearly. R.I.H. Darleen.
