

Darryl J. "Mook" Poittilo

May 14, 1988 - December 15, 2022

Darryl Jermaine Poittilo affectionately known as "Mook ", was born May 14, 1988, in Portsmouth, Virginia. From a young age, Mook was always a force to be reckoned with, never giving in to the pressures of society, but instead marching to the beat of his own drum. Mook attended Chesapeake Public Schools (CPS), where he graduated from Western Branch High School in 2006. His laid-back personality and playful demeanor will be missed dearly. Darryl is preceded in death by Ernestine Howell-Poittilo and Diane Vinson-Jones. Darryl passed away suddenly at work from a severe asthma attack. He is survived by his wife Veronica Montague-Poittilo, children Amar Poittilo, Dania Poittilo, Jaiden and Shayla Montague, grandfather Jeremiah Poittilo Jr., mother Lisa (Steven), father Darryl (Latrice), special aunt Kimberly Hunt, brother Stephen, sisters Stephanie and Kita, along with a host family member and of close friends, and acquaintances.

“ My Deepest Sympathy to the family for your loss. Darryl (Mook) was a great dad. I admired his Smile and his dedication to his children Amar and Dania who he often said " they are my best friends". I loved Mook like a son, and he told me his appreciation for being a grandma who is always right on time. Love you Mook, I will always look out for your children, they are Grandmas Pride n Joy! with Sincere Love, Ms. Edgerton (You Always called me that) ❤️❤️❤️.
