“ You are truly going to be missed. I enjoyed my time with you and the love you gave me. I appreciate all the conversation we had. I am so thankful that God allowed us to get to know each other and allowed us to spend time together. Rest easy my brother. Love you always.

“ I can't believe you had to go so soon but I know your job here is finished and the LORD said it's time to get your wings. I know he said a job well done. You earned your seat in heaven because to be absent from the body mean to present with the LORD. When you just recently kept talking about your preacher man. Deep down in my heart I know your soul was getting ready. Your wings were ready Darryl my heart was just not. You will forever be Nyika favorite guy because the bond we had was put together through GOD and the world may never understand. Thanks for giving me a bond that I longed for and that was you being a real true brother that I never really had. I am going to really miss you but I'll find you when ever I earn my wings.
