“ When I first arrived in Portsmouth, Va. there awaited this lifetime friend. Dave and Helen became our best friend and extended family. We really enjoyed getting together. We both enjoyed conversing on most subjects. DAVID will truly be missed by Anne and I. Dave loved being a servant of the Lord, in which he served well in his calling. We are sorry we could not attend his going away service, due to Anne operation .Helen, we extend all our love and sympathy to Brian, Ronnie, Glen, their families, as well as the Crocker family. We love you all, and may our only Heavenly Father be with you all. God Bless you, Willie, Anne, and the Manson family.

“ I will miss you Uncle David. Being married to Aunt Helen for 65 years was such a joy for me growing up. As a child, I witnessed that you could fix just about anything, especially anything electrical. All other family members that have gone before you are waiting for you with open arms. Tell Aunt Emily, Aunt Alma, Uncle Howard, Aunt Dorothy, Aunt Eleanor, Esther K, and Mama (Leslie) hello. Rest in peace until we meet again.
