

David James Greek

January 30, 1959 - June 28, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

JG

“ He was my father and my best friend. I was his oldest son. And what Mark said he had little or no tolerance from lies from corporations, governments, and individuals and those are values I still carry to this day from him. I will carry those values for the rest of my life. RIP dad. Gone but never forgotten.

James Greek - April 08 at 09:23 PM

SM

“ He was a great teacher of mine that introduced me to Edgar Allen Poe and created in me a love of that type of literature. He was a great man and a great friend.

John McClain

We often spoke of the ninth grade English teacher that made our son fall in love with Edgar Allen Poe. He was so supportive of our son and totally understood his style of learning and communication. LHS has lost a great teacher, he will be missed. Peace and love to his family!

Stephanie McClain

Stephanie L McClain - July 02, 2020 at 12:54 PM

KD

“ My son, Elijah, was a student of Mr. Greek's at LHS. Elijah enjoyed having Mr. Greek as a teacher and was upset to hear he passed away. We are sending our thoughts, prayers and love to the Greek Family. May your memories of Mr. Greek comfort all of you during this difficult time.

-Katie and Elijah Dixon

Katie Dixon - July 01, 2020 at 10:49 AM

“ David was a big man; big build, big laugh, big intellect, big emotions, big, big heart. He was A God fearing Christian who did his best to lead a righteous life. And he was honest. He had little, or no patience with lies or hypocrisy from individuals, corporations, or governments. This would, occasionally, get him in a little trouble, but it earned the respect of everyone who would get to know him.

Knowing David Greek made you a better man.

Mark Gates - July 01, 2020 at 08:58 AM

JG

Thank you for the words about my father. It is all true about him. Those are the values from him I carry to this day.

James Greek - March 29, 2025 at 03:32 PM

SM

“ David Greek, a devoted husband, committed father, determined teacher of the English language, and animal lover, among many other things.

We will keep you in our hearts and hope to comfort those who are going to miss your strength and wisdom in the days to come.

Your life has touched us with a boldness and faithfulness, which will inspire us as we continue pressing on to the prize of our calling in Christ Jesus.

You have crossed into glories which we cannot even image. See you later, friend. We treasure you and the memories of your kindness, humor, and celebration of life.

Sandy Manning - June 29, 2020 at 03:50 PM