“ Dave is a part of my family. Even when we were at odds we left smiling. That was his gift. To bring joy and laghter into the lives he came in contact with. Now he reings in eternal joy. You will be missed on this side Big Dave but I know you will have them smiling on the other side. Rest well cousin.

“ I remember playing sandlot football at Cavalier Manor field and Big Dave and I got into a "Who could run who over at the goalline!" We stopped the game and we we played one on one tackle football. It was hilarious to say the least, two big dudes taking turns trying to run the other one over. We walked away from that moment laughing and have been friends ever since. RIP Big Dave and my prayers are with your family!
