“ To Ashley and Destiny it saddens my heart that she left this place but i know she is in a better place as she often said Im going to be alright and she is .Davida was a warrior she faught a great battle and won I got my encouragement from her she always had a word from the lord for you I will miss that I always knew she was praying for love ones this summer was my most treasured time we had.Im praying that everyone will find peace as she did.

With all my love
