

Debbie Houston

October 9, 1965 - March 3, 2016

Debbie Houston known as "Tweety Bird" was born on October 9, 1965 in Portsmouth, VA to Lois Owens and deceased father Roosevelt Owens.

Debbie leaves behind (loving husband) Thomas Houston, (daughter/best friend) Latasha Owens, (grandsons) Xzavion Owens, Zion Owens, Zaiden Owens and (godson) Devon Garland. She was one of nine children: Melvin Bottoms, Sharon Taylor, Michael Owens, Shelia Jenkins, Donald Owens, Felecia Owens, Veronica Owens and Dwayne Owens. She also, leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends.

Debbie attended and graduated from Cradock High School where she excelled at being a majorette. In October of 1995 she began driving for the Portsmouth City School systems where she made an impact on many of the young lives that she encountered. From there she later went on to work for the CHKD Thrift Store. Debbie was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister and overall person. Her daughter known as "Pip" and grandsons "Zay", "Zi" and "Zaiden" were the apples of her eye. She was a cheerful and thoughtful giver. Her love and compassion moved her to do anything she could for anyone she knew.

She never forgot the love that she had for Jehovah over the years through the encouragement of her mother and others. In time she started studying the bible with one of Jehovah's Witnesses and soon became an unbaptized publisher with the goal of dedication to Jehovah in view. She spoke to all who would listen about her loving Heavenly Father. She knew that in her years of illness that Jehovah was her strong hold and that if she stayed faithful to the end He would remember her. She was loved by all who knew her and she will be greatly missed.

“ I Am The Gentle Autumn Rain

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glint on the snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you wake in the morning hush
I am the swift, uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight,
I am the soft starlight at night,
Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not here - I do not sleep.*

Debbie "Tweety-Bird" know that you'll always be in our hearts and dearly missed.

*With love
Natalie "Tine" Byrd*
