“ To the Collins family Miss Delois you will be truly missed. I have only known you for ten years. You were my grandkids great grandmother Meshara and Makayla Murphy. You reminded me of a scripture in the bible Matthew 25:35-40. You looked out for everbody when they were hungry or needed somewhere to stay. May God continue to keep you in his tender loving care! “ To the Family of Mrs. Deloris Collins:

My sincere condolences in this time of loss. May God bless and comfort the entire family and friends during these hard times.

As I conclude, I would like to leave you with a few words that may comfort you and try to provide understanding when things look so cloudy and appear that GOD is has forgotten us.

Paul noted that God revealed details about what happens after death to encourage and comfort us, to give us hope in times of personal loss, that we not "sorrow as others who have no hope" (1 Thessalonians 4:13). God's promise of eternal life is certain; we can safely trust in it as long as we are faithful to Him. Writing to a fellow minister, Paul spoke of his confidence in the "hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised before time began" (Titus 1:2).
