

Donald Lorenzo Jones

December 21, 1967 - April 10, 2026

Donald Jones was born in Norfolk, Virginia, to Anne Brown and was lovingly raised by his devoted father, Nathaniel Brown. He grew up surrounded by family and friends in Norfolk, where he attended Maury High School, and later continued his journey at Job Corps in Pennsylvania, where he formed many lasting friendships.

Donald was a big man with an even bigger personality. He loved his family deeply, valued loyalty, and held a strong love for God in his heart. Known for his humor, warmth, and gift for conversation, Donald could make anyone laugh and feel at ease. He especially loved children and had a natural way of bringing joy wherever he went. Many knew him as a natural salesman who could bargain with just about anyone.

Donald often started the day by reaching out to loved ones with a message or text reminding them they were loved. His words were simple but heartfelt—he would often say, “I love you just that much.”

He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving father, Nathaniel Brown; his mother, Ann Brown; his brothers Carson Davis, Sertonius Brown (Aruna Brown); his sisters Shanay Lewis (Ryan Lewis), and Andrea Brown. He was preceded in death by his brother, Nathaniel Brown Jr. Donald is also survived by his best friends, Aubrey Jones and Tracy “Funk” Funtleroy, along with many beloved nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends.

He was also the son of Donald Burgess.

As the scripture reminds us in 2 Timothy 4:7, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished the race I have kept the faith."

And somewhere beyond our sight, with that same big smile and generous heart, Donald is still reminding us all:

"I love you just that much."
