“ Remembering Ms. Doretha. I met her when I first moved to Virginia in 2011. I got a job as a cashier at Save-a-lot. I was about 23 then. She was the realest one there! She always spoke her mind and stood her ground there. I always felt better when she was working the same shift as me. And when my husband would stop by they would always get caught up talking about football. They both are Eagles fans. LOL! She is a soul I will never forget.

I know you have been gone for some years but it is never too late to show love. R.I.P. Ms Doretha. You are missed!!
