

Dorothy "Dottie" Renfroe

August 31, 1951 - December 15, 2020

On Tuesday December 15, 2020 Dorothy (Dottie) Renfroe departed this earthly life for eternal rest and peace with the Lord. Lovingly known as "Lottie Dottie" to her family and friends, Dottie was born August 31, 1949 in Isle of Wight County, Virginia to the late Deacon Robert Holloway and Ida Holloway.

Dottie was a native of Smithfield, Virginia and grew up as a member of Little Zion Baptist Church. Dottie graduated from Westside High School and then continued her education at Shaw University before moving to Philadelphia, where she met her husband George. The couple moved to Deptford, New Jersey and settled on the south side...where she nestled and was welcomed into the Diggs family tree. After becoming a widow, Dottie maintained her family home close for her children and was a Sicklerville, NJ resident for 29 years.

Dottie was preceded in death by her husband George E. Renfroe and her sister Joyce Ann Gaither.

To Cherish her memories, Dottie leaves behind her 3 children - Latif Holloway (son), Leah Renfroe (daughter), and Brahim Renfroe (son)...sister Betty Newby, brother Robert Holloway Jr., and goddaughter Tanja Tatum. Dottie's legacy also includes 5 grandchildren - Granddaughters Ahmadi Holloway, Neajah Ellis, SaQuelah Renfroe, and Grandsons Jhaliel Bullock and Josiah

Rey Renfroe, greatgranddaughter Ahlanii Harlem, niece Melody Knowles, and nephews Darius Holloway and Roderick Holloway. Dottie leaves behind dozens of cousins connected to the Holloway family tree that loved her dearly, some of whom supported her as a confidant such as Deloise Jefferson who she affectionately called "Princess" not to mention all those who loved and celebrated her as family. Dottie had a special name for all her babies...her nieces, nephews, and cousins whom she cherished along with a host of dear and close friends.
