

Dorothy Rodgers

December 5, 1938 - January 21, 2017

On January 21, 2017, God called Dorothy Mae Rodgers to her heavenly home. She made the transition at Maryview Hospital surrounded by her loving daughters. She was born December 5, 1938 to the late Johnnie and Rose Mae Outten.

Dorothy was educated in Portsmouth Public School system. She pursued a loving career as a housewife and homemaker for many years. She was an extraordinary woman and mother. She loved reading, listening to good soul music, watching Wendy Williams and having family gatherings. Dorothy taught the best of her life skills to her children and grandchildren.

Dorothy is predeceased, in death, by her husband, James A. Rodgers, her sister, Lena Mae Outten and her grandson, Damon Patrick Staton. She was loved faithfully by her family, and she leaves many devoted family members to cherish her memories. She is survived by a sister, Rosetta Banks and a brother, Joseph Outten Rodgers. She will be especially missed by her daughters, Marilyn Epps (Kenneth); Patricia Staton; Geraldine Paige (Timothy); Annette Silver (Gary); and Yelonda Wilson; Stepsons: James Rodgers, Jr., Donnell Rodgers, Freddie Rodgers; Stepdaughters: Sheila Moyer, Evonne Mann and 21 grandchildren, 48 great grandchildren; 8 great-great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

"We celebrate her life today. We want you to know our mother was a true Proverbs 31 woman whose price was far above rubies. She was a force to be reckoned with. She-walked over the necessities of life, fiercely kicking over every obstacle in her way, believing that if you can't figure it out, put it in God's hands, and He will work it out. This was our mother, Dorothy Mae Rodgers!

We will forever love and miss you!"

Love, Your Daughters
