

Dottie Leathers

December 25, 1950 - July 1, 2020

Dottie Hayes Leathers, 69, transitioned on July 1, 2020, due to heart complications. She was born in Portsmouth, VA to Mary and Frazier McCoy. She was married to James Leathers.

Dottie battled with lifelong heart issues, but none would know it upon meeting her because she had the biggest heart. The only indication was the gentle “ticking” noise caused by her mechanical heart valve that she received from her second surgery. Dottie always exuded love and light and greeted others with a warm smile. No matter how tired she was, she never failed to lend a helping hand.

Affectionately known to many as “Aunt Dottie” or “Nana,” Dottie acted as a Mom to many and loved to take care of others. She raised two children from infancy (Kamarie and Melasia) as if they were her own. Dottie had a way with children and they all seemed to gravitate toward her.

Dottie is survived by her sister Mary, three brothers Willie (Barbara Jean) of Connecticut, Conrad of North Carolina, and Winston “Sooner”; son Antonio “Tony” (Maria); daughter Tonya; six grandchildren Shakola, Stacey “Papa”, Antonio “TJ”, Tania, Jakoby, Nia, Zaniah, and Darius; many nieces and nephews; and a huge host of extended “children.” All of whom she loved deeply.
