“ To the family of Rev. Johnnie Jones. Rev. Jones married us at St. John's Baptist Church almost 22 years ago. We just moved and were looking at pictures from our wedding and came across one of his business cards . He had sold a car to our neighbors who teased us saying we were married by a car salesman. They loved him and kept in touch with him. We wondered if he was still at Lakeview because we thought the world of him and actually attended a service at Lakeview after we returned from our honeymoon. He made an impression on everyone he met with his great sense of humor and he touched our lives. You all have our sincere sympathy in your loss. He is at peace with our Father up in heaven. God bless you all.
