“ As you go this last mile with your love one, know that God is with you. He is still the God of comfort and will take care of you. Hold on to God and he will see you through as you complete this journey with your love one. We, the friends from the St. John Association, where, Rev. Chris Edmonds is our moderator, are standing with you during this hour of sorrow. We pray that God will give you strength to move forward with your lives.
