

Dwayne E. Williams

May 7, 1962 - June 3, 2023

Dwayne “Bossman” Edwin Williams departed this life on Saturday, June 3, 2023. His friends affectionately called him “Bossman” and he would show a big grin whenever he heard it.

Dwayne was born in Portsmouth, VA and attended Portsmouth Public Schools. In his early years, his mother, Eula Mae Porter ensured he received religious training at St. John Baptist Church in Portsmouth, VA, where he gave his life to Christ. Dwayne enjoyed following his big brother Michael Porter around. Michael introduced him to scouting. Dwayne loved being a Cub and Boy Scout under Scout Masters Mr. John Moody at St. John Baptist Church, Portsmouth, VA and Mr. Willie at Saint Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church, Portsmouth, VA.

Dwayne loved to sing and you would often hear him singing all types of music. Many years ago, he sang with the iconic gospel spiritual artist Ms. Peggy Britt and the Philharmonics. Dwayne’s secular favorite artist was The Jackson Five but particularly Michael Jackson. He would break into a Michael Jackson spin and throw up his right hand as if he had on the “silver glove.”

Dwayne worked at various jobs to include landscaping, painting, and cooking. He worked at the Mary Jane Bakery and Roger Browns Restaurant and Sports Bar. Some of Dwayne’s favorite pastimes included singing, dancing, watching wrestling, eating fried fish, watching movies, talking to and being around people, having a good time and cheering on his beloved Dallas Cowboys. Dwayne was very thankful for his mother Eula Mae and ensured he told her he loved her whenever he saw her. He was grateful for his sister Renee Worrell who looked out for him on a regular basis and was always willing to help him.

Dwayne was preceded in death by his Grandmother: Ruth Smith; Brother: Bruce Porter; and Sister-in-law: Eula Mae Porter.

Dwayne leaves to cherish his memories his Mother: Eula Mae Porter of Portsmouth, VA; Siblings: Pastor Michael B. Porter, Sr. of Portsmouth, VA; Angelia Renee Worrell (Byron) of Portsmouth, VA; Charles L. Burrell of New Church, VA; nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.
