“ Dwayne (Blackphail) McPhail. That's what we called him in the Navy. He was my mentor while we were in Nuclear Power Prototype Training in Connecticut. He was always on me because i was the only black "Nuke" in the class and he wanted to make sure I succeeded. After i graduated we remained very close friends. We met up again in Virginia when was on a Tender Ship & I was on the USS Yellowstone AD-41. We had a ball until I got out of the Navy in 1994. We would always call each other every few months for over 14 years, even after I got out of the Navy. I would always tease him about taking his behind to church and staying out of trouble. He would tell me to just pray for him. A great and true frien indeed. He will be truly missed.##imported-begin##Pastor Gregory Pitts##imported-end##

“ Dwayne touched so many people in so many ways. He was truly a very special person to me and many others. I never dreamed that I would be saying goodbye to my friend so soon. My heart is truly broken, but I know the lord doesn't make mistakes. I will miss his big smile and heart felt laugh. To his mother Ms Vera, and Christina, I truly know and feel your loss. please continue to trust in the lord and put him first in everything you do. the lord called my mother home just days after Dwayne. I like to think that they are both walking around heaven and smiling down on us. You are in my prayers and may god keep you in perfect peace always.

From the very first moment we met, I knew we would be friends. I think of how we met in the Avis Rental Car waiting area and can't help but laugh. You were so suave and cool. We instantly connected and became friends. I miss your laughter and your sense of humor. I wish we had more time to talk and share a laugh. I was looking so forward to our friendship flourishing. I miss you dearly!!

“ Mac - You will be truly missed but not forgotten. You were always a good friend at work and for years after we both left the yard. Always there with a smile and a laugh. Many people who had a chance to meet you got to know someone with a great passion for music and life. Your departure was far too soon.
My heartfelt sympathies go out to the family through this difficult time.##imported-begin##Rob Armbrust##imported-end##

“ When Dwayne and I first met, he referred to himself as "Waynie D". He thought he was a DJ or something. The year was 1983 at Pfeiffer College (now University) in Misenhiemer, NC. Without knowing, Dwayne and I left college during the same time and later joined the Navy. Still, his whereabouts were unknown. It happens that he was stationed in Groton, CT and I in Newport, RI. We had no idea that we were so close. It wasn't until my situation in Virginia Beach that I decided to reach out to an old friend. After several failed attempts, I finally called his home and spoke with Kristina. Dwayne and she lived in Norfolk, Va. We were always so close, without having any idea, since we met. When I came to his home that night, we hugged and vowed never to lose touch...and we never did. For 26 years, I've had the pleasure of calling him my friend....my Brother. My most heartfelt condolences go out to family and friends.

Tell someone you love them today, for tomorrow might be too late.

Sincerely,

“ Dwayne: Your great love for life was only surpassed by your perception, intuition and good counsel. Each day you brightened those around you, gave generously of your time, and created a friendly and enjoyable atmosphere. You always had time for a story, a deep hearty laugh and a nice comment. To whoever that someone was work or social related. Each and every person you touched benefited from your fine gift, admired your dapper, high style way of dressing and looking like you just stepped out of a band box. We miss you dearly, we miss you often, but we know where you are, the sun is always shining brightly. Take good care as I am fortunate to have known you as a friend.##imported-begin##Playa##imported-end##

“ It saddens to my heart to say goodbye to such a wonderful person. However, my spirit is rejoicing with the angels to know that you are making music next to our Heavenly Father. I never thought when I met you 3 years ago that our friendship would blossom into something so beautiful. To know you is to love you. Your heart was always full of love and your spirit with laughter. I will miss talking to you daily about family, work, music, shopping and football. (WOW!! who would think, you Love Macy's more than a woman) Thanks to you, I know a lil bit more about each and appreciate them all even more. I miss you so very much. You will always have a special place in my heart. To Mac's daughter, Christina and the entire family, I pray that God will strengthen your heart and your faith during this time. Remember, "to be absent in the body, is to be present with Christ". God is not a God of mistakes. He is all seeing and all knowing and He has a plan for all our lives. My God continue to bless you all and keep you in perfect peace.##imported-begin##Sandra Hardaway##imported-end##

“ To Mac's family, I pray for your comfort and solace during this time, and I hope it helps some to know he was so well loved. I only knew him for a short time as well, but he made us ALL feel very special. He laughed AT us, WITH us, and we did the same with him. I won't forget him "picking" playfully at all of us in one way or another. And, I don't think I will ever be able to pass Macy's again, without thinking of him. This lady will remember you fondly,Mac.....

““Mac” was a soul mate. He was my brother from another mother. No matter the situation his infectious laugh would brighten a room and bring cheer to all. We spent hours together talking about our families and loved ones and the sameness was scary. I know he is smiling at us all. The good Lord has cured his illness and made him whole again in Jesus Christ. I miss him and talk with him every day.##imported-begin##Ken “Coach” Chepy##imported-end##

“Although I knew Mac for only through work for a short time, he had quite an impact on me in a variety of ways. Never have I met a man that liked clothes and fashion more than myself, until I met Mac. He was always dressed impeccably. Mac must be playing music with one monster band in heaven. He loved his music and had appreciation for a wide variety of genres. God bless you and your family, Mac.##imported-begin##Don Scott##imported-end##
