“ Dear Earline – Last week you responded to God’s call and joined your father, mother, and brothers in Heaven. For many years we talked together, played together, and walked together. Now, we have to say farewell. Cousins are like best friends with whom we share happy times, sad times and even secrets. We are the great epitomes of companionship that are present throughout our lives. Cousins are the ones with whom we share the most beautiful memories. You will always remain alive in our memories. So Rest in Peace Dear Cousin, Rest in Peace.
