

Eddie Cook

November 18, 1945 - November 26, 2014

Eddie Lee Cook, 69, of Chesapeake, VA was the beloved son of Jack and Johnnie Mae (Simpson) Cook passed away peacefully at home on Wednesday, November 26, 2014. One of eleven children, he was born on November 18, 1945 in Plains, GA (Sumter Co.) and attended Sumter Co. High and Mt. Salem Baptist Church in Americus, GA. He relocated to Norfolk, VA in 1968 and served in the U. S. Army in Germany. He was married to Annie M. Dismuke of Smithville, GA and was blessed with children Edmund C. Cook and Andrea M. Cook of Norfolk, VA. He was a quiet, gentle man who loved outdoors, music and books especially his Bible. He was a devout Christian with a strong work ethic. Before retiring, he worked for Sealtest Dairy, Mayflower and New Bell Trucking and alongside his brother Alonza at Cook's Moving and Transfer. He was predeceased by his brothers Alonza Cook and Samuel Cook, sister, Annie Maude Cook-Schley and brother in law, Charlie T. May, Sr. In addition to his children, Eddie leaves to cherish his memory brothers, Oscar and Charles; sisters, Josie Mae, Lula, Shirlene, Carrie and Barbara, an aunt Ollie M. Simpson; sister in law, Marva, dear friend, Frank R. Williams and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

The family has entrusted J. T. Fisher Funeral Services to handle the final care arrangements. Condolences can be offered to the family at www.jtfisherfuneralservices.com

“ If only I had the right words to heal your heart, comfort your soul and surround your whole being with deep, sweet peace. . . those are the words I would offer right now. But all I can say is I am thinking of you and praying for you, Edmund and Andrea. I care about you both, I wish healing when the time is right. May the light of God surround you, the love of God enfold you, the presence of God watch over you and the power of God protect you as you endure the loss of your father. Much love, Aunt L.
