

Eddie L. Vaughan Jr.

May 3, 1966 - November 18, 2018

Eddie Louis Vaughan, Jr. affectionately known as “Bootman” born on May 3, 1966 to Eddie and Iona Vaughan peacefully slipped away into his eternal resting place on Sunday, November 18, 2018.

As a child “Bootman” attended Portsmouth Public School System and graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School. During his tenure he was recognized for his talents in the Arts for drawing, painting and sculpting. After high school Eddie joined the United States Army and served until he was injured. He was employed with Hampton Virginia Medical Center until his illness.

“Bootman” was laid back and one of the realest and coolest people you could meet. He knew no strangers. He had a special love for music and could pick out the most intricate part of it and make you love it. He loved his family but the love for his mother and sister was unquestionable.

His memory will forever live in the hearts of those who loved and admired him. He leaves to cherish his memory his parents Eddie and Iona Vaughan, Portsmouth, VA; one son, Travon Johnson, Portsmouth, VA; one daughter, Danisha Glover, Portsmouth, VA; two brothers, Rodney Vaughan, Jackson, NC and Tony Moses, Garysburg, NC; one sister, Keasha Vaughan “The Boss” in his words, Virginia Beach, VA; three grandsons, Christian and Kameron Glover, Portsmouth, VA and Ashtyn Johnson, San Diego, CA; three aunts, Cora Council and Mae Della Perry, both of Portsmouth, VA and Adelaide Bradley, Scotland Neck, NC; three uncles, Joseph “Bud” Vaughan, Durham,

NC; Calvin Vaughan, Margarettsville, NC, Herbert Vaughan (Norma), Portsmouth, VA and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
