“ Extending my heartfelt sympathy to the Slaughter family. Edna was indeed a sweet and classy woman. You could always find her working in the jewelry department at the NEX. She would be the first lady you would see as you entered the Exchange. Her smile was contagious and her professionalism was unmatched. Long after she retired from the NEX, I went back and inquired about her. It was only a few months ago, I was in NEX and asked about her again. May her sweet memories continue to live on in her family and friends.

What a beautiful woman, I loved it when I came into the Exchange & the first voice was Denise's "Girl let me show you these earrings over here on sale." I've been missing her since she left. Denise, you will be missed, to her family she was a beautiful woman.
