

Elaine Robinson

May 31, 1939 - December 1, 2011

Elaine Robinson of Chesapeake, VA was called home to be with the Lord on Thursday, December 1, 2011 at her residence. She was 72 years old. Elaine was a loving mother and a devoted wife, having been married for 50 years. She worked as a teacher and an educator for 20 years. Elaine was an Olympic athlete who had an opportunity to run with Wilma Rudolph. She was a spiritual advisor to many and she blessed all to maintain sound body and mind.

Elaine was predeceased by her daughter, Lisa Marie Robinson. Left to cherish her memory is her loving husband, Charles Robinson, Sr.; her sister, Meredith Ellis; her brothers, Arnold Ellis and Theodore Maxey (Michelle Maxey); her son and daughter-in-law, Charles Robinson, Jr. (Lisa Robinson); her daughter, Sheila Randolph; and her son-in-law, Abraham Canty. Also left to cherish her memory are two devoted granddaughters, Tiffany Foster and Wesley Robinson, and our newest addition to the family, Jacory Peltzer; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ I was very surprised to hear of Mrs. Robinson's passing. She was one of our customers at At Your Door Automotive Service, and we really enjoyed talking with her whenever she had work needed on her vehicles. I only just found out so I'm sorry to say that neither my husband, Jimmie, or I were at her memorial on Tuesday, Dec. 6th. Our condolences to Mr. Robinson and family.##imported-begin##Jenny Cothorn##imported-end##
