“ Words cannot express how much I appreciate Uncle Booboo for being the Father I needed as a young woman. He defended me like I was his own ❤️ When my son lay dying, Uncle Booboo kept going to his bedside and praying for him ❤️ He treated me and mine like family ❤️ I'm going to miss him calling me "Guh", his gentle spirit, and his beautiful soul ❤️

“ I've contemplated on the right memory to share, and the truth is there are quite a few. However, I'll state since around the age of eight I've been bless to know you and auntie etc. Thank you for loving us uncle, praying with me and for me with various challenges. I appreciate the conversations and sometimes how you knew what was going on without me stating it. You are missed and loved.

“ My heart aches . My big brother it hurts to even think I will not see you again on this earth. You don't know how much it meant to me seeing you last. But had I even thought it would have been my last time I would have make my hugs last a life time. I love you with all my heart. I don't know how I'm going to handle not hearing your deep voice saying to me "Hey baby". When I called. I knew you are in God's hands and you are at peace. This is one of the conversations we always talked about how good God has been. You never ended a call without saying I love you and stay Blessed.

“Elder George Wesley Adams was my God Father. I came to know him in 1986. At Faith Temple Apostolic Church under the Leadership of my late father Bishop Obadiah Colander.. At that Time he was known as Brother Adams, and Nickname was Boo Boo.. Once he did his Initial sermin , my father announced in the Church we could no longer acknowledge him as , Boo Boo..But Call him Minister Boo Boo. 😭

Elder Adams was a family man.. I remember riding in the big blue truck and he made me spit my gun out because I was popping it.. 😭 he said Bro Joe Men don't pop chewing gum.. I have so many memories of Elder Adams.. I am so glad I went visit him at his home a month ago..Just before he went into the Hospital..

Love your Elder Adams
You will be missed.. Your God son.. Brother Joe as he would call me..

Elder Adams was like a brother to me. He loved eating at our house. I would wait on him and he would just smile. He gave me accurate prophecies
He was my prayer mentor up until he got sick. I can't believe he's gone. He was very understanding and knowledgeable about the word of God. We're gonna miss you Bro. Rest in peace. Love you.

Elder Adams was one of the kindest persons I have ever met he was very soft spoken but yet stern especially when it came to the things of God. I met him years ago while working at shipyard and he was a very nice and respectful person who was very different from the rest, he was not just a man of God at church but everywhere he went..I'm so glad I got a chance to get to know him and his family, he was one of the few people who would call me Pamela...lol..I'm going to miss him so our talks and friendship...May you continue to rest in the arms of Jesus..Thank you for being my friend.
