

Elder Russell Ove Williams, Sr.

August 10, 1926 - March 21, 2016

On Tuesday morning, March 22, 2016, the Lord called his son Russell O. Williams Sr. to his heavenly home. He was born on August 10, 1926 in Capron, VA to Ezra and Ella Williams. Russell Williams Sr. was a loving and devoted husband and father to his family. GOD has always had his hand on him. At a very young age Russell was seeing visions and discerning spirits. Everyone realized that there was something different about him. He was a living testament to the scripture "Many are called, but few are chosen." Russell O. Williams Sr. was truly one of GOD's chosen. He enjoyed reading, researching, listening, discussing and spreading the word of GOD. Russell was called into the ministry one Sunday morning after the Lord spoke to Bishop Green. On that Sunday morning, Bishop Green called him by name from the congregation and told him The LORD said, it is time for you to take your rightful place in the pulpit. Elder Williams was a wonderful preacher/teacher. He taught in a way that one was able to truly understand, visualize, and learn the word of GOD. His teachings stayed with you long after the message was over. Elder Russell o. Williams Sr. was truly a man of God. He lived it, he spoke it and he walked the love of God. He believed in the power of prayer. His prayers have brought his family through many storms of life. When everyone was sleeping, he was praying for us. He was obedient to the will of GOD. "Dad", "Daddy", "Big Daddy", "GrandDad", "RO", "ROW", as he was known and affectionately called by his children, grandchildren and friends loved life. He retired from the NOB as an Inspector after over 30 years of service. He was predeceased by his parents, one brother Otis Williams and his loving wife, Mary I. Williams. He leaves to cherish his loving memory four children; Russell O. Williams Jr., Debra Robinson (Kenneth), Larry Williams and Veronica Matthews; His grandchildren, La Vita Williams, Min. Katrina Ellis, Erica Williams, Ebony Williams, Russell O. Williams III, Keenan Robinson, Caniesha Home, Shana Wright, Martin Matthews and Varonique Matthews, great grandchildren and a host of family and friends.
