“ Met Lisa in 1996 and her family when she stopped by my home to have papers notarized by me, and remained friends all these years since that one God given day. Amazing person, wonderful laugh and enjoyed life and people. What a good giving and caring heart she was to everyone who came in contact with her, my heart aches looking at this lovely lady and my friend.... She would not like that though, she is one of the most positive people I had the great pleasure of knowing and can never forget.... Lisa I love you to the moon and back my friend and will miss our laughing till we cried, bless you. So sorry for the family and their great loss at this time.

*Love in Christ forever and always,
