“ To My Dearest Dad, Mr. Elijah Thornton, Jr.

My heart is filled with gratitude as I reflect on the incredible life you lived and demonstrated love for your family. You were more than just my father—you were my protector, my guide, and my greatest role model; sometimes too perfect that I should have paid attention and listened, for real!!! For as long as I can remember, you showed me what it meant to live with integrity, strength, and compassion. Your love and wisdom shaped the woman I am today as a mother, wife, educator and community servant.

As a father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, you gave each of us your time, your kindness, and your unwavering support. You were always there for your family, not just in big moments, but in the everyday little ones too. You were somewhere close to the delivery room for both of my children and I am honored that you took on the role of a father for my first-born, Jordan. Your devotion to us will forever be etched in our hearts.

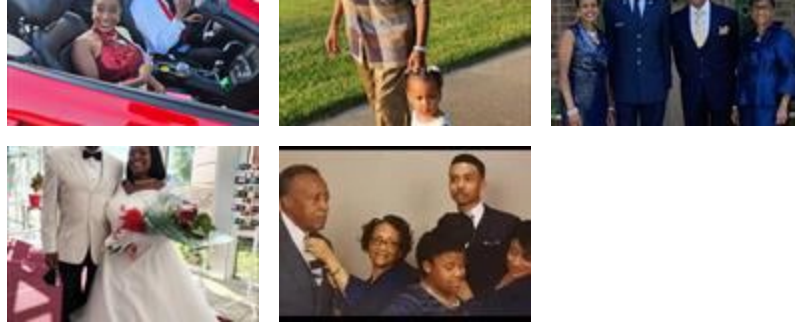

Most of us will acknowledge that you were a “dapper” and well-groomed dresser. I will forever carry on your legacy as I’m the only one in the family that took on your fashionable trait (LOL).

I’m forever grateful for the way you provided for us, loved us, and showed us the importance of family. You taught us what it meant to be strong, yet gentle, and you did it all with a humble heart. Anything that wasn’t to your liking, we knew from a two-word statement; “BAD NEWS!!”

I was blessed to be with you in your final moment with 3 kisses to your forehead as you took your last breath. While I miss you dearly, I know you are at peace and I will carry you with me always. I love you, Dad, more than words can express.

“ To Mrs Sandra Thornton and family.

From Elder Robert and Shirley Collins.

We are profoundly sorry about the passing of Brother Thornton. Throughout our relationship, we have known him to be a saved by his words and deeds.

He certainly a fine gentleman and a wonderful person whom we loved.

We are praying that God will strengthen you and your family with His peace and abiding love always during this time of grief and loss.
