

Elizabeth Ann Schwab

March 1, 1961 - April 19, 2025

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

SA

“ Elizabeth "Liz" Schwab a beloved mother, grandmother and friend passed away peacefully at Obici hospital in Suffolk Virginia on April 19th 2025 at the age of 64. Born on March 1st 1961 in fort Wayne Indiana, Liz spent her life spreading love,creativity,and warm to everyone she encountered. Elizabeth graduated from Friendsville high school and went straight into the Coast guard right after, where her dedication Spirit were evident to all those who served her. Although details of her career are not specified, Liz's life was rich in creativity and passion. She was a vibrant soul with a knack for story talent and crocheting. Elizabeth cherished her family deeply and enjoyed spending quality time with them. Her love for classic television movies was notable often watching favorites like Jail, Gone with the Wind, Scarlett, Gidget,and John Wayne classics such as McClintock and Donovan's reef. Elizabeth survived by her daughter's Heather Currie and Sara Selvy, son-in-law Darren Selvy, grandchildren Adrianna, Joshua, Juliana, and Donovan. Karen Schwab her niece and great niece Kayla Schwab. She was preceded in death by her husband Robert Schwab, her mother Ruth Beeler, her sister Mary Beeler and in-laws Sheila and Richard Schwab. This is life was a tapestry woven with vibrant threads of family creativity and resilience her greatest pride and Joy were her two beautiful daughters and cherished grandchildren who lit up her world and kept her heart full. She will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all those who knew her.

Sara - April 24, 2025 at 03:56 PM