

Elnora Best Hodges

February 3, 1926 - May 22, 2026

Elnora Best Hodges was born February 3, 1926 in Goldsboro, North Carolina to Amy Roberta Best and Adam Eugene Best. She was the youngest of six daughters and four brothers.

She was the widow of Vernon McCray Hodges, Sr., and had three children, Vernon McCray Hodges, Jr. of Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany, Jennifer Hodges of Chesapeake and Linda Lewis of Chesapeake (pre-deceased).

She was the proud grandmother of nine grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren. She is loved and will be dearly missed. We will all see her again. We love you, Grandma.

“Praise the Lord, let everything that has breath praise the Lord.” Psalm 150:6

Aunt Elnora was a blessing to everyone she met. At 100 years old, she lived a life filled with faith, love, kindness, and grace. As the last of her brothers and sisters, she leaves behind a legacy that will never be forgotten.

She will be greatly missed and lovingly remembered by all whose lives she touched.

Rest in Peace, Aunt Elnora.

“ To Aunt Elnora family,

We are all in pain because of the physical loss of our mother and aunt. The last one of the previous generations, but we thank God for her love she gave to all of us to give. God gave her love to give, and God requested that she come to heavenly home for everlasting rest.

*With love,

“ Dear Jennifer, Vernon and Members of the Hodges and Best Families:

Please accept our heartfelt condolences on the passing of Aunt Elnora.

Aunt Elnora was blessed with God's grace and wisdom. Allowing her to live past 100 years was His gift to us. We should each aspire to embody her spirit. As the last living child of Adam and Roberta (Pinkie) Best, Aunt Elnora has shown us that as a family we are determined, have perseverance but more importantly love.

Our prayers are that God will cover each of you and that the memory of Aunt Elnora will forever be embedded in your hearts. We now have an entire family of Angels watching over us. The circle is unbroken!

Rest in Peace, Aunt Elnora.
