

Eloise Creekmore

September 4, 1938 - May 15, 2018

Our beloved, wise, and loving mother, grannie, auntie and friend Eloise “Lo” Martha Deberry Creekmore peacefully transitioned to be with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on the afternoon of May 15, 2018, at 4:06 PM. Eloise was born in Portsmouth Virginia on September 4, 1938, to the parents of Warren E. Deberry and Wilmer Ferguson. She attended the Portsmouth Public School system.

During her life Eloise worked as a domestic worker, laborer, MaryJane Bakery line-worker and a childcare provider; loving every child as if they were her own family before she retired. She was faithful and dedicated to her family. Also, well known in her community for her loving personality.

Eloise was preceded in death by her parents, husband John D. Creekmore, son Nathaniel Deberry, sisters Debra Little, Barbara Wilson, Sandra Deberry, and brothers Warren Deberry Jr. and Frankie Deberry. She leaves to cherish her memory seven children: John D Creekmore Jr.; Charles Creekmore (Tina Creekmore), Tony Creekmore; Zina Creekmore; Robert Creekmore-Phillips (Michelle Creekmore-Phillips), D’shenelle Creekmore-Ransom, Latarsha Creekmore-Melton (Donell Melton); two brothers William Deberry and Herman Deberry; Seventeen grandchildren; fifteen great-grandchildren along with a host of nieces, nephews, her longtime friend and companion Frank Ransom, adopted grandchildren and great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

We will miss her deeply, but her legacy lives on through all who knew and loved her.
