

Elsie Mae Davis

July 14, 1944 - May 6, 2026

Celebrating the life of Mrs. Elsie Mae Davis, who peacefully transitioned to eternal rest with her Heavenly Father on May 5, 2026. Elsie was quiet, gentle, soft-spoken, and always walked with small, graceful steps while wearing a warm smile. She was born in Suffolk, Virginia, to the late Mr. Elijah Willis and Mrs. Gussie Willis.

Elsie was educated in the Chesapeake Public School District and attended Crestwood High School, where she met the love of her life, her husband, Mr. Frank Linsey Davis (deceased). They were inseparable, and many would often say they walked “slow and steady, as if they were walking on clouds.” Together, they were blessed with four sons: Frankie Davis Jr., Elijah Davis, Terry Davis, and Tracey Davis (deceased). Elsie was also preceded in death by her brother, Cliff Willis.

Elsie attended New Hope Baptist Church in Pughsville, Suffolk, Virginia, where she faithfully served as a Missionary for many years. She was employed at Newport News Shipyard for twenty-eight years and was affectionately known as a quiet and kind woman.

Elsie leaves to cherish her loving memories her sons: Frankie Davis, Elijah Davis (Linda), and Terry Davis; two grandchildren, Elijah Davis Jr. and Zanala Davis; two nieces, Gail Willis and Denita Willis; her best friend, Mrs. Mildred

Brown; and a host of cousins, relatives, and friends.

“ I am deeply sorry to hear about the passing of one of my childhood friends and neighbors (back in the day, in the Pughsville subdivision of Suffolk, Virginia, 1950s and 1960s) Mrs. Elsie Mae Willis Davis. She was a wonderful person. She was always kind and gracious. She always had a joyful smile and joyful words to share, whenever I saw her, as did her husband, Frankie Davis, Sr.). The joy of the Lord was truly her strength. May God, His precious Son, Jesus, and His Holy Ghost continue to bless, strengthen, and comfort her entire family, during this time of loss. (Dr. Archie W. Earl, Sr.)

“ To the Davis family this condolence come from the Killebrew family from Pughsville. In Psalms 30:5--Think on this verse---For his anger endureth but for a moment: in his favor is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. We remember Ms. Elsie from the time we stayed in pughsville we lived beside her late brother, and we went to the same church, and we knew her family members. May God Bless the family and keep them in perfect peace we are praying for the family as they mourn the passing of this beautiful person who had a beautiful smile and she was a sweet person -but this is to encourage the family to let them know that they have not lost Ms. Elsie, she went from labor to reward. Trust God for all the healing. From- Patricia, Sandra, Duckann, Phil, Jean, Maryhelen--Killebrew. Blessings on Blessings.
