“ It's so hard to say good-bye. Elva, I really miss our daily phone conversations, our trips to the chinese food joint, and you dancing on the dance floor. Elva you were always a kind and sweet person who would do anything for anyone. During one of our daily phone conversations we started talking about how I used to do the "Twist" dance. They always wanted me to do the "Twist" and I loved to do it. She mentioned that s he remembered that all of a sudden I stopped doing the "Twist" and they never knew why. She said whenever they tried to pay me to dance i refused. I told her the reason why. I told her when I was younger I told Momma that whenever I do the Twister" my side would her and she said don't do it so I stopped dancing. We both laughed about it. I love and miss my phone buddy. Rest my dear sister.

“ Elva, It's so hard to say goodbye. I will miss our daily conversations, trips to the chinese joint, and you dancing on the dance floor. I really enjoyed my last visit with you. We were listening to gospel music and you started tapping your feet. So long until we meet again. You were a really kind hearted person and would do anything for anyone. You will be forever in our hearts. Tell everyone hello. Until we meet again.
